

March 1, 2011

Charles Stanley's Life Principle #7

The dark moments of our life will last only so long as is necessary for God to accomplish His purpose in us.

Biblical Character: Joseph son of Jacob

Scripture Reference: Genesis 37, 39-45

In this lesson we reviewed the trials that Joseph encountered throughout his life. We reflected upon how Joseph always:

Gave God the Glory

Patiently waited upon the Lord

Displayed a spirit of mercy and forgiveness.

If you missed the class, review the story of Joseph for yourself and think about how you can relate to the dark moments in his life. In doing so, ask yourself:

Am I responding to the dark moments in my life the way Joseph responded to the ones in his life?

What is God trying to teach me about my dark moments?

Am I keeping in mind that God has a purpose even through the dark times?