

Reflecting the Principle through Self Evaluation Life Principle #30

An eager anticipation of the Lord's return keeps us living productively .

Those who believe Jesus could come back any day are more likely to live productive Christian lives. Setting our minds on Him motivates us to walk in holiness (1 John 3:2-3).

Are you living a life that follows this belief?

Jesus said we are to “be on the alert, for [we] do not know the day nor the hour” (Matt. 25:13). He will return “in the twinkling of an eye” (1 Cor. 15:52). We should live as if He were coming today (Matt. 24:36).

Are you making every moment in life count for Christ?

The Lord has given us all a spiritual assignment to spread His love and the message of His Son's salvation.

Have you been doing your assignment?

Reflecting the Principle through Self Evaluation Life Principle #30

An eager anticipation of the Lord's return keeps us living productively .

Those who believe Jesus could come back any day are more likely to live productive Christian lives. Setting our minds on Him motivates us to walk in holiness (1 John 3:2-3).

Are you living a life that follows this belief?

Jesus said we are to “be on the alert, for [we] do not know the day nor the hour” (Matt. 25:13). He will return “in the twinkling of an eye” (1 Cor. 15:52). We should live as if He were coming today (Matt. 24:36).

Are you making every moment in life count for Christ?

The Lord has given us all a spiritual assignment to spread His love and the message of His Son's salvation.

Have you been doing your assignment?

Reflecting the Principle through Self Evaluation Life Principle #30

An eager anticipation of the Lord's return keeps us living productively .

Those who believe Jesus could come back any day are more likely to live productive Christian lives. Setting our minds on Him motivates us to walk in holiness (1 John 3:2-3).

Are you living a life that follows this belief?

Jesus said we are to “be on the alert, for [we] do not know the day nor the hour” (Matt. 25:13). He will return “in the twinkling of an eye” (1 Cor. 15:52). We should live as if He were coming today (Matt. 24:36).

Are you making every moment in life count for Christ?

The Lord has given us all a spiritual assignment to spread His love and the message of His Son's salvation.

Have you been doing your assignment?

Reflecting the Principle through Self Evaluation Life Principle #30

An eager anticipation of the Lord's return keeps us living productively .

Those who believe Jesus could come back any day are more likely to live productive Christian lives. Setting our minds on Him motivates us to walk in holiness (1 John 3:2-3).

Are you living a life that follows this belief?

Jesus said we are to “be on the alert, for [we] do not know the day nor the hour” (Matt. 25:13). He will return “in the twinkling of an eye” (1 Cor. 15:52). We should live as if He were coming today (Matt. 24:36).

Are you making every moment in life count for Christ?

The Lord has given us all a spiritual assignment to spread His love and the message of His Son's salvation.

Have you been doing your assignment?

What are our responsibilities as followers of Jesus?

Watching faithfully. Our choices should be testimonies to those who don't believe.

Waiting peacefully. As believers, we don't have to be anxious when we hear bad news. Scripture promises us peace if we will give God our worries and trust in Him (Phil. 4:6-7). Even when people mock our belief in the second coming, we can have confidence that God is working all things according to His perfect plan (2 Peter 3:1-9).

Working diligently. Regardless of the timing of Christ's return, every believer should actively serve the Lord somehow. We never retire from working for God.

Worshipping Him joyfully. Sunday morning we gather at church to encourage and pray for each other and exalt the Lord together. That attitude of worship should characterize our lives the rest of the week, too.

Have you been fulfilling your own goals and desires? Or have you been actively investing your life in seeking and obeying the will of God? Evaluate your thoughts, activities, and priorities in light of Christ's return. Jesus might return at any moment. Will you be ready?

What are our responsibilities as followers of Jesus?

Watching faithfully. Our choices should be testimonies to those who don't believe.

Waiting peacefully. As believers, we don't have to be anxious when we hear bad news. Scripture promises us peace if we will give God our worries and trust in Him (Phil. 4:6-7). Even when people mock our belief in the second coming, we can have confidence that God is working all things according to His perfect plan (2 Peter 3:1-9).

Working diligently. Regardless of the timing of Christ's return, every believer should actively serve the Lord somehow. We never retire from working for God.

Worshipping Him joyfully. Sunday morning we gather at church to encourage and pray for each other and exalt the Lord together. That attitude of worship should characterize our lives the rest of the week, too.

Have you been fulfilling your own goals and desires? Or have you been actively investing your life in seeking and obeying the will of God? Evaluate your thoughts, activities, and priorities in light of Christ's return. Jesus might return at any moment. Will you be ready?

What are our responsibilities as followers of Jesus?

Watching faithfully. Our choices should be testimonies to those who don't believe.

Waiting peacefully. As believers, we don't have to be anxious when we hear bad news. Scripture promises us peace if we will give God our worries and trust in Him (Phil. 4:6-7). Even when people mock our belief in the second coming, we can have confidence that God is working all things according to His perfect plan (2 Peter 3:1-9).

Working diligently. Regardless of the timing of Christ's return, every believer should actively serve the Lord somehow. We never retire from working for God.

Worshipping Him joyfully. Sunday morning we gather at church to encourage and pray for each other and exalt the Lord together. That attitude of worship should characterize our lives the rest of the week, too.

Have you been fulfilling your own goals and desires? Or have you been actively investing your life in seeking and obeying the will of God? Evaluate your thoughts, activities, and priorities in light of Christ's return. Jesus might return at any moment. Will you be ready?

What are our responsibilities as followers of Jesus?

Watching faithfully. Our choices should be testimonies to those who don't believe.

Waiting peacefully. As believers, we don't have to be anxious when we hear bad news. Scripture promises us peace if we will give God our worries and trust in Him (Phil. 4:6-7). Even when people mock our belief in the second coming, we can have confidence that God is working all things according to His perfect plan (2 Peter 3:1-9).

Working diligently. Regardless of the timing of Christ's return, every believer should actively serve the Lord somehow. We never retire from working for God.

Worshipping Him joyfully. Sunday morning we gather at church to encourage and pray for each other and exalt the Lord together. That attitude of worship should characterize our lives the rest of the week, too.

Have you been fulfilling your own goals and desires? Or have you been actively investing your life in seeking and obeying the will of God? Evaluate your thoughts, activities, and priorities in light of Christ's return. Jesus might return at any moment. Will you be ready?